

Traffic laws tightened

FRANKFORT — The Village Board has adopted a long ordinance dealing with traffic. It is getting ready now to adopt another measure that could also be lengthy. It deals with liquor licenses and is slated to be presented by Village Attorney August Santoro to the board Monday night.

Santoro explained that the village has 31 ordinances on the books dealing with the serving of alcoholic beverages and the operation of the places where they are sold.

The proposed ordinance, he said, will revoke 18 of the older ones and combine the best features of the other 13. The ordinance was being typed when the council met last week, Santoro said.

As in former measures this one sets 1 a.m. as the deadline for selling drinks and 1:30 a.m. as the time for all patrons to be out of the place.

If anyone other than employees or owners are seen leaving a bar after 1:30 a.m. it is to be accepted as prima facie evidence that drinks were sold after hours.

The long ordinance dealing with traffic includes all the violations set forth in the state traffic code, making them village offenses. By writing traffic tickets under the new village ordinance, Santoro pointed out, the village will be able to collect the fines that may be levied by the court.

There are 53 pages in the new ordinance. It is being published in booklet form. There is a copy on file at the village hall for public use, and anyone may purchase a copy of the ordinance for $10, a fee set by the board.

Under the new measure traffic fines can range from $10 to $500 for a first conviction, $25 to $500 for a second conviction within a year, and not less than $100 or more than $500 for subsequent convictions.

Keepataw lives!!!

LEMONT -- Friendly Chief Keepataw, a Potawatami Indian Chief for which the Lemont village was once known, is now a "name" project for Mrs. Alfred Joly and Mrs. Harry Hejka of Bluff Road.

Federal Access highway 61 is slated to proceed from the Aurora Tollway between Downers Grove and Woodridge approximately down the Will-Downers Grove and Woodridge approximately down the Will-Dupage county line as it touches Lemont. Part of the highway plan is a scenic rest area at Black Partridge Woods which is on a bluff overlooking the DesPlaines River valley.

A possible threat to the planned scenic view is a new stone quarry now under consideration. Vulcan Materials is now in the process of negotiating the purchase of an 80 acre tract immediately southwest of Black Partridge woods from Steve Juris, a resident of the area.

The first plat of Lemont on the north side of the river was known as Keepataw. This followed an Indian treaty dated August 24, 1816. Indians signed a treaty for a strip of land in the valley which eventually became the Illinois-Michigan barge canal.

Mrs. Joly and Mrs. Hejka are now seeking an appointment.

LOCKPORT — Don Carlson, a Lockport resident, told the city council at their last meeting that he now has toilet facilities in his home, after a lack of them for seven months. He then asked the council if he would get a rebate on his sewer and water bill.

Carlson said his problems began in March when his sewer became clogged. He said he went to city hall to ask for a map so he could locate the tap-in.

According to Carlson, he was told it was up to him to find the tap-in, although three men arrived with a geiger counter, and were not able to locate it.

Carlson said he dug a hole six feet by seven and a half feet and located a water main; then dug an additional hole six feet by 30 inches and did find the sewer, but then found he could not dig in the street.

Mayor pro tem Swen Nelson told Carlson a pri-

Car mishap shows need for walks

NEW LENOX — Injury to two Lincoln-Way High School students struck by a car while walking along N. Cedar Rd. last Wednesday afternoon gave added impetus to the campaign for sidewalks along that thoroughfare.

Superintendent Arnold J. Tyler, head of the New Lenox public school system, appeared before the village board at its meeting last Wednesday night to urge action on the sidewalk project.

It was announced several weeks ago that the village would install walks along north Cedar Road. They would be in front of Oakview School on the east side, between Gum and Oakview, and on the west side from the south end of the school property north to about midline between Forest and Wood streets.

John Djerf, of Robert E. Hamilton Engineers, village engineers for New Lenox, estimated the cost of the walks would be $13,000. Village officials are endeavoring to spot some funds for the project. Whether work can be started this year — if bids are taken — depends upon the weather.

The school board is being asked to put in the walk in front of the school.

In the course of the meeting Wednesday, Mayor Joseph Hartung said that the school board was looking for a buyer for the Haven School property. Sometime ago it was suggested that perhaps the village might acquire the Haven School for use as a village hall and civic center. But at the price the school would have to get for the property, it is not likely the village would be interested.

Superintendent Tyler said that the location of Haven School is not a good one any longer — for a school — but that the school district would continue to use it if unable to find a purchaser. The price for the property, Tyler said, would be the sum necessary to replace the school. To build a school with eight classrooms would cost approximately $257,000, the superintendent added.

Mayor Hartung also informed the board that Providence High School is seeking annexation to the village so that it can use the village sewer system. The Reverend Roger Kaffer, principal at Providence, has asked for a meeting with Clarence Klassen, director of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, to discuss the possibility of the school connecting to the New Lenox sewer system.

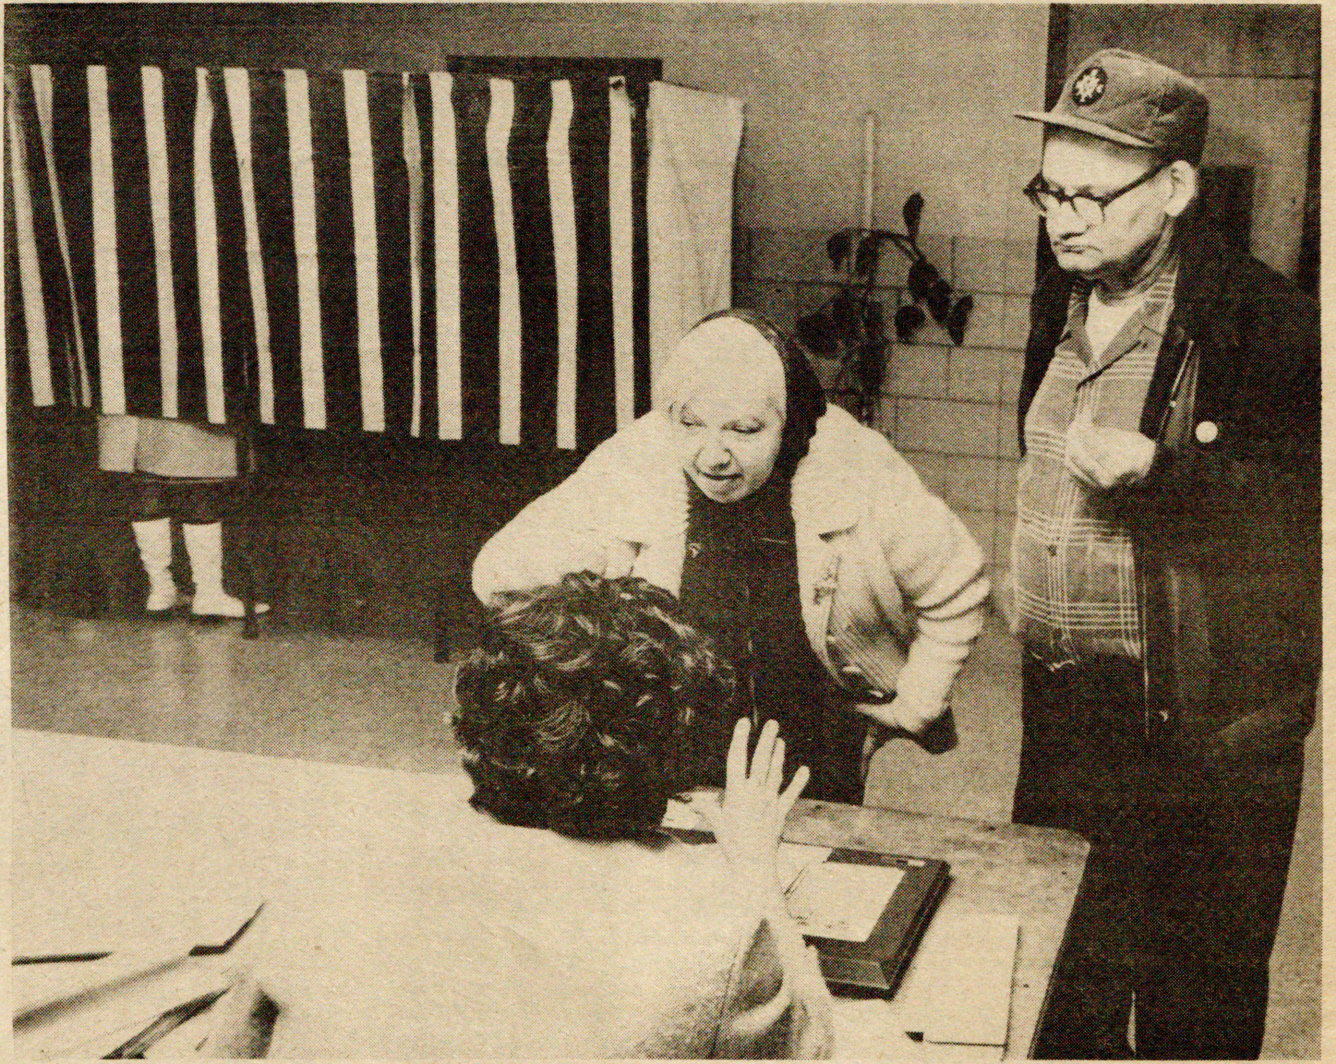

With the carpenter strike ended, work is expected to resume on the sewage treatment plant. Carpenters have not been working on the job since last August. As a result, the contractor has been working his crews in other places and will now have to re-schedule the work. Village officials hope the work can be started this week. The plant is being enlarged in keeping with orders from the state.

Delay in getting final plans of street construction and drainage facilities on Kimber Dr., to engineer Djerf in time for review before last week's meeting resulted in continuance of the matter by the board until Nov. 18.

Relative to a claim for trespass — a village sewer main cuts through one of his lots in the Hillview subdivision on Wood St. — the board is offering Robert Munch $1,000 plus a tap-on.

The board directed that a letter be written to the police auxiliary, thanking the members for their services on Halloween night.

A license has been issued William Bolker for a package liquor store on north Cedar Road.

ment with the Illinois Highway Department in Elgin so that the Keepataw name may be preserved. They want the rest area named after Chief Keepataw.

Lemont's "Pop" Wend, who's family runs Wend's tap at Main and Stephens, was 9 years old in 1886. According to an interview with Mrs. Joly, Pop Wend recalled playing with Indian children in the valley. They would roam the hills around Bluff Road and also hunt and fish. Bluff Road was then a famous Indian trail that led to Plainfield.

Pop took great delight in remembering how an Indian squaw would send him out to catch a chicken, have him kill it and pluck it and then have his fortune told. He was told he would marry a beautiful girl.

Mrs. Joly said, "I do believe that these squaws were clever women; knowing how to entice a young boy to clean chickens for them, but, to this day, Pop thinks they were the greatest fortune tellers in the world."

One day, as he and his young Indian friend were playing among the trees, they heard the sound of horse's hooves in the distance. A short time later, they saw a cloud of dust. Coming down Bluff road was a large group of Indians on horses. He estimated there were between 75 and 100 Indians approaching.

They set up camp on the land where the Joly home now stands as well as the land across the street. Pop said he was fascinated by these Indians and watched them every day. What ever they came to do, he said, must have been very important. Every so often, a very old Indian would gather a group of braves around him. He would set up a couple of big cooking kettles while talking to the group. This went on for a few days, then they started to dig.

Pop has no idea what they were after and no-one ever found out what the digging was for. After the episode, they packed up, saddled up and disappeared westerly into the sunset down Bluff Road.

As the years went by, Pop became a collector of Indian artifacts from this area. Unfortunately, some of the pieces that he collected from the Bluff Road area were stolen while his place of business was re-modeled. Several residents along Bluff Road have collected Indian artifacts on their properties.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Eisenbrant appeared before the board to complain about bright light from signs at Phillips Chevrolet on U.S. 30 west of U.S. 45. They said they would like to have the lights adjusted or hooded so they don't get the full glare. They have passed their complaint on to Chevrolet regional headquarters.

Trustee Allan Mager said a provision was being added to the commercial section of the zoning ordinance to the effect that a flickering or intense light must be hooded. Building Inspector William Knippel was to take the matter up with the agency owners. Mayor Glenn Warning told the Eisenbrandts the situation would be corrected.

Albert H. Krusemark gave the village 1 1/3 acres of land from his subdivision to be used for civic or park purposes. The village plans to lease it to the park board for a minimal sum as soon as the necessary legalities can be performed.

When the question of sidewalks was brought up, Krusemark said he was ready to install them on his property; others joined in the idea. Mager is to talk to other property owners about installation.

The board approved the recommendation of the Zoning Board granting Harry Gansel a variation for a two-foot setback and permanent signs for the nursery on his property on U.S. 45. The buildings had been erected where they are now before Gansel annexed the land to the village.

The Lincoln Lane improvement project is to be re-let, the board decided.

Frankfort has become a member of the Suburban Building Officials Conference. The dues are $15 a year. The building codes here are being revised. Mager, who heads the Building Committee, told the board that representatives of the Building Officials Conference of America have expressed a willingness to meet with village officials and discuss a new code. Building Inspector William Knippel and Supt. Don Stephens are to attend a meeting of the Suburban Building Officials Conference at Oak Brook Nov. 17.

Police Officer Ronald Smith is to finish his probation period Dec. 1 and on that date is to receive a raise. The board also adopted a police duty manual.

Lockport High boards in parley

LOCKPORT — The Lockport High School board and administration met with a North Central Association team Thursday night to discuss board-administration-community relations.

Dr. Lowell Fisher, executive secretary of North Central, Robert Grant, director of the Department of Recognition and Supervision, Guy Cornwell, consultant representing the Illinois Association of School Boards, and Boyd Bucher, superintendent of the Will County Educational Service Region were members of the NCA team.

The district requested the meeting, a closed session because of the nature of the discussion, according to school officials. Board-administration - community relations was one of the criteria which contributed to the district's being placed on an "Accredited-Warned" status by NCA last year.

Lloyd Harrell, superintendent, said the board's purpose in requesting the meeting was two-fold. They sought the advice and counsel of the team with respect to overall operation of an educational program and specifically to NCA minimum criteria.

The board also wanted to provide in a face-to-face communication situation all the facts related to the situation in Lockport.

According to Harrell, the meeting was objective and constructive. He said, "The purposes were accomplished. Excellent advice and counsel were given by these gentlemen. They also offered the services of their respective organizations should District 205 request them."

"All the facts and information concerning the situations leading to our present status with North Central were discussed openly and frankly. Better understandings and insights were formed, not only to the peculiar solutions," Harrell added.

The board and administration stated an intense desire, Harrell said, to provide the best education program possible for students of the district; that the students of Lockport are just as deserving of a quality educational program as those in other districts; and that the board and administration were loyal to Lockport students and that their knowledge, abilities and skills would continue to be directed toward these ends.

Harrell concluded, "An atmosphere of optimism pervaded throughout the meeting in that meaningful steps can be taken to implement our new understandings, new insights, and new recommendations toward a better quality educational program for Lockport students."

Program needs families as hosts

LOCKPORT — Host families are needed if the International Youth Fellowship Program is to continue in the area this Thanksgiving season. The deadline for hosts is this Friday, Nov. 13.

More than 365 international students from 58 countries have spent their Thanksgiving vacations in Lockport, Joliet or Plainfield over the past 11 years.

Area families are offered an opportunity to entertain students from Wednesday through Sunday and to establish international friendships.

The program is a joint effort sponsored by the Fellowship Program in cooperation with International House at the University of Chicago.

Students are picked up the afternoon of Nov. 25 at International House and accompanied by representatives from fellowship towns. Each town pays its own transportation costs. The program is aided by funds from several area service clubs.

Lockport and Plainfield have planned several activities for the visitors, including various trips to points of interest in the area.

The Lockport Lions Club has planned a Friday luncheon for the students. Friday weekend activities will end with a potluck dinner Saturday, Nov. 27.

Mrs. Harold Finley, Lockport chairman for the Fellowship, said that hosts are needed for entertaining families as well as single students.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Finley at 838-5683 or Mrs. John Herron, Plainfield, at 436-9737.

For Mayor Nordstrom, it's business as usual

LOCKPORT — Mayor George Nordstrom may be laying down on the job, but he certainly hasn't given up the ship.

A recent surgical patient, he returned home last week, and is doing "business as usual" with regard to city affairs.

He has moved his "office" from his bed into the living room, where a steady stream of well-wishers and people with city business pass through. George is well-equipped, with a telephone nearby, and plenty of paper to take complaints.

"I sit here by this window and watch people speed down my street (Madison) and then I call the police. I've been pretty busy!" he laughed.

George takes his job seriously. On Election Day, only two days after he had returned from the hospital, he participated in a broadcast on a Joliet radio station, by phone, urging people to vote yes for the anti-pollution bond issue.

"I wanted people to know that the city council supported this issue, and what its passage would mean to the people of Lockport. We will get help from additional sources for our sewage treatment plant, now under construction," he said.

When the carpenters' strike was settled late Wednesday, George immediately began phoning people to see if there was a possibility that the 9th Street bridge could be completed before winter.

As it stands now, barring instant winter, the bridge will be open by Dec. 15. "It looks like a sure thing," George said. He added the old bridge will be left in place until spring. "This is the latest news and I have no reason to doubt it."

In addition to visitors, George has received some unusual get-well greetings, some from as far away as Japan. His daughter, Carol (Mrs. James Toner) currently lives in Japan and he received a tape with greetings from her as well as several neighbors who conveyed greetings in their own languages.

He was also the recipient of three grubby, mustard-soaked napkins sent and signed by most of the members of Lockport's morning and afternoon "discussion group" who meet over coffee daily and discuss matters of "great importance."

Until he returns to his full-time job with Meadow Gold and his rather more than part-time job as Lockport's mayor, he will continue to be available at home. When he says, "Come on over!" he really means it.

Two hit by bus

NEW LENOX -- Two Lincoln-Way High School students, walking along N. Cedar Rd., after alighting from a school bus were struck by a car last Wednesday afternoon.

Driver of the car, Kenneth D. Kessell, 36, 188 Hawthorne, was ticketed on charges of wrong lane usage and negligent driving.

According to the police report Kessell said he was forced onto the shoulder, where the boys were walking, by another car as he was heading north on Cedar. His court appearance is scheduled for Nov. 19.

The two youths, Richard Hughes, 14, 114 E. Wood St., and William Krippel, 15, 177 Forest St., were taken to Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet, where they were admitted.

vate citizen cannot dig in the city streets without a performance and payment bond. "The city has no protection without that bond."

Gordon McCluskey, Lockport's director of public works, said his office had provided Carlson with a copy of an ordinance pertaining to where a citizen may dig, and also the requirements as to performance and payments bonds.

Carlson said he had difficulty locating a contractor who would do such a small job, and further difficulty finding one who had the required bonds.

He told the council that he could have dug the hole himself and asked "How does a contractor have any more knowledge than a private citizen?"

Carlson's statement regarding a lack of toilet facilities for a period of seven months evoked a stunned silence from councilmen. He further added his family had been forced to use facilities at a nearby service station and that he had kept a daily diary of his ordeal.

Frank Meyers, who is Carlson's alderman, said he had visited Carlson's home a few days prior to the council meeting and questioned Carlson as to why he had not contacted him before. He asked Carlson if he had voted in the last city election and explained "if you vote for a man, he represents you and you should put pressure on him."

Carlson said he only wanted the council to know that the problem had been solved, and what he had been through in the process. "I hope this never happens to any of you gentlemen."

County sheriff dons badge

The general election had "a first" for Will County in the election of Joseph Trizna as sheriff.

Four years ago Trizna put aside his badge and retired after having served four years as sheriff.

In December he will pin his star back on and begin his second term as sheriff, a first for the county.

Neither sheriffs nor county treasurers can succeed themselves in office under Illinois law, but there is nothing to prevent a person who once served a term from seeking the office again after a term has elapsed.

Several have attempted to repeat as sheriff, but Trizna is the first to accomplish the feat. Roy Doerfler was elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late Ernest Overbey, and then ran and was elected for the regular term. In that instance it was decided that serving a part of a term as sheriff did not preclude the holder from succeeding himself for a full term.

Neighboring Grundy County also set a record. Grundy has been regarded as steadily Republican--until now. The voters elected a Democrat as sheriff last week--the first time such a thing has happened in more than 80 years.

Meade Baltz, seeking reelection as state senator from the 41st District, had a tough fight, but finally emerged with enough votes to win. He trailed most of the night as returns were received in Will County.

At one time he was lagging by about 1,200 votes behind his Democratic opponent, LeRoy Van Dyne.

At that time an observer remarked that Baltz could leave Will County with such a deficit and pick up enough votes in Grundy to win.

In past years this would have been true, but this year was different. Van Dyne carried Grundy by 434 votes. He had 5,328 votes and Baltz 4,894.

In Will County, Meade was able to make up the deficit he was facing. His total in Will was 25,877 and Van Dyne's 25,221, giving the incumbent a 656-vote edge to offset his loss in Grundy and return him the winner with a plurality of 222.

DuPage and Kane County voters performed as expected. They remained Republican.

Local bank is victim of fraud

LEMONT -- A Downers Grove man has been charged with defrauding Chicago area banks including the Lemont National Bank of about $200,000 in a phony loan scheme.

Elmer Ill Jr., 49, of 5427 South Main St., Downers Grove, surrendered to United States Postal Inspectors Monday after learning a warrant had been issued for his arrest on the charges.

The charges said he defrauded the Lemont National Bank of $50,000. Vice president Arthur Blesch of the bank had no comment last week.

Federal officials said Ill, a retired career Marine, worked with a social program for retired Marines and had access to official stationery.

The warrant charges that a fraudulent letter was sent to the bank saying that Ill had $70,000 on deposit with the Marines. He also was implicated by federal officials in similar schemes at other banks.

Not all of the banks sustained a loss, however, a spokesman from the Postal Inspector's office said.

Group slates pancake feast

FRANKFORT -- The Frankfort Volunteer Fire Department will have its annual pancake breakfast from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 15, at the fire-barn on Kansas Street.

The menu is pancakes, butter and syrup, bacon or sausage, eggs, orange juice, coffee or milk.

The cost is $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for grade school age children. Preschoolers are free. Proceeds will be used to purchase supplies and equipment for the department.

Rehabilitation center established in Mokena

MOKENA — A rehabilitation center, designed to help handicapped adults become self sufficient has been established here. It is incorporated as Grace Center and the headquarters are in the former Welsch Lumber Co. sales rooms and material yard on Wolf Rd., south of, and adjacent to, the Rock Island Lines right-of-way.

The Rev. Carroll Peterson, 8440 Hillcrest Dr., Orland Park, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Orland, is directing the center. Besides being an ordained minister he is a certified social worker.

Other incorporators are Leonard G. Breese, 16812 Laramie Av., Oak Forest, and Robert E. Potter, 17710 67th Ct., Tinley Park.

Purpose of the not-for-profit corporation is set forth as follows:

"To promote the general welfare of the handicapped; to encourage research related to mental, physical and emotional handicaps; aid parents in solution of their problems; to bring parents and friends of handicapped together for defining mutual problems and to aid handicapped; provide day care for persons 18 years of age and over."

The main objective, the Rev. Mr. Peterson said, is to train handicapped persons in services, business and industrial jobs so they can become self supporting and useful members of society.

The center is seeking work which can be done here for which the center and the trainees are paid. Last week the Ford Co. at Chicago Heights sent a truckload of a special equipment used in packing parts for transfer to various plants. There are long metal pieces which are threaded with rubber strips.

There are many jobs in industry and business that can be farmed out cheaper than the original companies can do the work. Grace Center is looking for such work.

There is enough space in the quarters to operate a number of various training programs at the same time. There are no living accommodations, however.

The site is but a short distance from the railroad station which makes it convenient for some trainees.

Peterson said that it had been planned to lease or possibly buy the Oak Park motel at Wolf Rd. and U.S. 30, to serve as living quarters for trainees but the motel was destroyed by fire.

The Lt. Joseph Kennedy School, in the Orland area, has had a similar training program. Retarded youngsters, many of whom have become self supporting through employment by private companies. A similar program is also underway in Joliet.

How natural gas research set a new world land speed record and opened a world of new advantages for you:

History was made recently at Utah's Bonneville Salt Flats. The scientifically-designed Blue Flame rocketed to a new world land speed record of 622.407 m.p.h.! The fuel — liquefied natural gas. The same natural gas energy that warms your home and cooks your food!

Northern Illinois Gas Company was deeply involved in the development of The Blue Flame. Not just to set a new world speed record, but to bring you a world of new advantages from natural gas energy.

Before long, whole fleets of cars, buses, trucks . . . and even supersonic jet planes may be powered by natural gas energy. Because natural gas energy is almost pure energy, exhaust pollutants from these vehicles may be reduced 50% to 90%.

And that's not all.

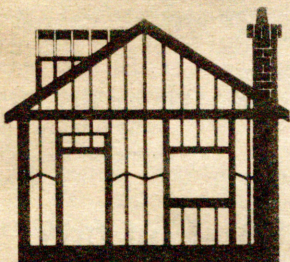

Like the modern gas appliances you have today, the engines of these vehicles would be simpler, with fewer parts to wear out. And, like all gas appliances, operating costs may be lower (liquefied natural gas may cost less and give better mileage than gasoline), so you'll probably pay less to come and go, or to ship and receive.

These are only a few of the exciting possibilities opened up by The Blue Flame Project. And The Blue Flame is only one of many research projects in which Northern Illinois Gas Company is now participating.

There's a lot more coming from natural gas energy. And we're going to help bring it to you.

Long-haired hard hats

By Herb Hall

Last week, a couple of days after the election, I saw a couple of long-haired hardhats working at a construction site along a highway.

They didn't conform with the expected stereotypes.

Nobody who is a hard-hat is supposed to be a long-hair. I don't know who instituted this dictum, but I think it arose after the March of the Hard-hats for Nixon.

This seems to have led Mr. Nixon to think that he had the solid backing of all good patriotic Americans, a class in which the marchers undoubtedly had faith.

Maybe the Republican administration, now in throes of tortured arguments that they won in the election, thought the hard-hats belonged to the silent majority. If they did, it seems fairly obvious from the election returns that they remained too silent from the Republican point of view.

While they can't be said to have lost, exactly, they certainly didn't win. Maybe the long-hairs among the hard-hats contributed to the evident confusion.

As long as everybody else has issued dubious punditical analyses of the late, not entirely lamented, off-year election campaign, I may as well give my own, even though it may be a little late by the time this is printed.

One thing that seems clear is that the Democrats have gained substantially in the Midwest, particularly in Illinois.

This was scarcely surprising, all things considered. (I have no intention of taking all things into consideration here, so relax.)

One thing that seems obvious in this part of the country is that the silent majority was not entirely in the joint pocket of Mr. Nixon and Mr. Agnew, although that would be about the best place to be silent in, I suppose.

Instead they kept talking, and talking about how strongly they backed "law and order," with the false implication that their opponents were against it.

I really can't understand how Sen. Ralph Tyler Smith, undoubtedly an intelligent man, could have expected to win on the non-issue of "law and order."

In order to have an "issue" there has to be a question. The Republican party represents respectable people who could scarcely challenge this position. The respectable Negroes have more at stake in effective and impartial law enforcement than most people have, but they were almost (if not quite) ignored.

We can hardly expect the Negro community, even the middle-class Negroes, to get very choked up about either party on the basis of this election.

We shall have to wait and see whether either party shows any more sensibility to social issues in 1972 than it has this year.

It seems likely that most political leaders on both sides have decided that there isn't much percentage in going for the Negro vote.

Such an attitude, of course, plays directly into the hands of the "black radicals."

Ask any hard-hat.

Publishing 'good news'

There are some people who criticize all newspapers for emphasis on "bad news", just as if the newspapers had created it to build circulation.

Now we have a relief from this. We understand that there is a new publication in the South devoutly committed to publishing only "good news."

When stocks go up it will be good news, and therefore publishable. This will be heart-warming to people who hold stocks. When the market goes down the figures won't be published. The idea is that this will build confidence in our economic system.

It is reminiscent of the simple-minded optimism of the Harding era, when the economy was beginning to go to Hell in a handbasket and everybody who could think knew it. But there were few people who could think.

Those who did were dismissed as "Reds." They were a group which would now be defined by such intellectual leaders as Spiro Agnew as "radical liberals."

If the "bad news" had been brought to the people's attention before it was too late, the news might not have been so bad as it turned out to be in 1929.

Community Organizations

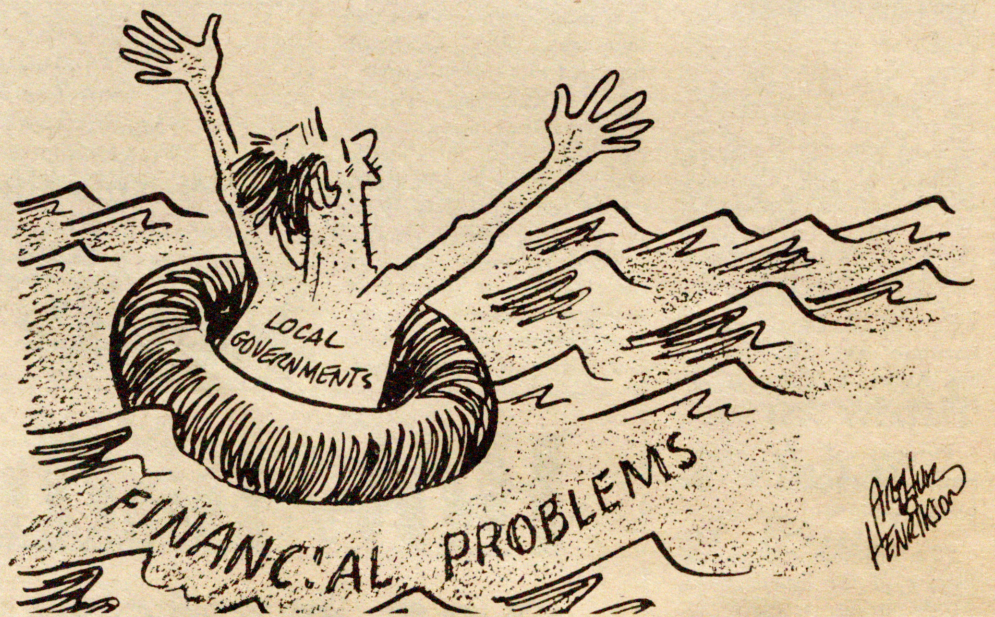

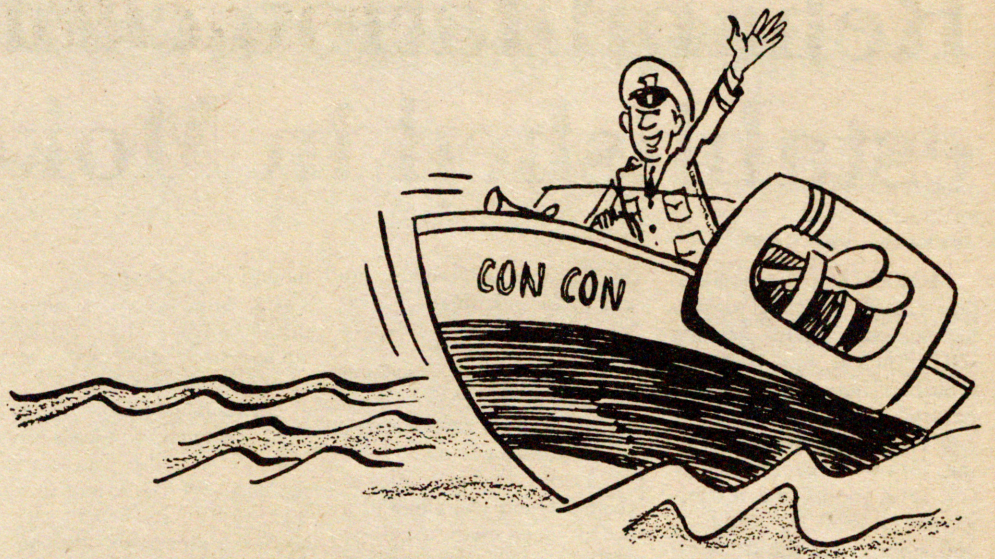

It has been proved recently in this area that there are really people who are willing to devote their time voluntarily to various community causes.

We mean beyond the normal and praiseworthy activities of such organizations as the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Lions Clubs, the Chambers of Commerce and so on.

A good example is the recently organized (or at least put together) "Women of Westmont." The association's avowed purpose is to improve the appearance of their village.

We think they are providing an example for other communities. We wish them well.

LINCOLN ESTATES —

The eighth grade class of the Ann Rutledge school has elected its class officers. They are Bob Line president, Dawn Gausman vice president, Becky Schofield treasurer and Cheryl Strickler secretary.

The children headed a Halloween party sponsored by the P.T.A. and given by the room mothers last Friday. School will be dismissed on Wednesday, Nov. 25 for the Thanksgiving holiday and will resume on Monday, Nov. 30.

The basketball season is here again. The schedule of games is as follows: Friday, Nov. 6 at St. Marys - away, Tuesday, Nov. 10 at St. Jude, Tuesday, Nov. 17 at Emeric, Friday, Dec. 4 at St. Damians, Thursday, Dec. 10 at St. George, Monday, Dec. 14 at St. Emeric, Friday, Jan. 15 at St. Marys. These are all home games. On Tuesday, Jan. 19 Peotone away. Tournament games will be Feb. 1-4 at Peotone. Home games start at 7:00 p.m.

Again we have had vandalism at the school. We wonder what "Kicks" somebody gets out of breaking windows. The windows can't fight back so there is no challenge for the offender.

The students and faculty wish to take this opportunity to thank the P.T.A. and all other citizens who took part in cleaning the school grounds. Thank you to Mrs. Robert White and her committee for a very enjoyable community Halloween party.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler and Mrs. Dennis Wheeler have returned from Colorado Springs, Colo. where they had attended the funeral of Mrs. Wheeler's sister, Mrs. Leo Marcoux.

Mr. and Mrs. Emereth Boyden visited Mr. Denver Banks, a patient at Hines Veterans hospital. Banks is a resident of Glen Park, Ind.

A pre-school meeting was held at the St. Anthony's church on Wednesday, Nov. 4. Mrs. Dennis Wheeler was in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Zimmerman. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 18. All mothers with pre-school children are welcome.

The Halloween party for the children of the community was held on Friday evening, Oct. 30 at the Ann Rutledge school. About 275 people attended.

Letter

Editor, The Graphic:

May I thank you for the service rendered during the occasion of my golden jubilee.

The photos you took were distinct and beautiful. Thank you for sending them to me for framing.

We wish you the best of success in all your undertakings.

Proposed Illinois Constitution

(This is the ninth installment of the Proposed Constitution of the State of Illinois adopted on the third day of September, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy, by the Sixth Illinois Constitutional Convention at the Old State Capitol in the City of Springfield. The proposed constitution will be run in its entirety before December 15, the voting date.)

The following Schedule Provisions shall remain part of this Constitution until their terms have been executed. Once each year the Attorney General shall review the following provisions and certify to the Secretary of State which, if any, have been executed. Any provisions so certified shall thereafter be removed from the Schedule and no longer published as part of this Constitution.

Section 1. Delayed Effective Dates.

Section 2. Prospective Operation of Bill of Rights.

Section 3. Election of Executive Officers.

Section 4. Judicial Offices.

Section 5. Local Government.

Section 6. Authorized Bonds.

Section 7. Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Section 8. Cumulative Voting for Directors.

Section 9. General Transition.

Section 10. Accelerated Effective Date.

Sect. 1. Delayed Effective Dates: (a) The provisions of Section 1, 2(a), 2(b) and 2(c) of Article IV shall not apply to the General Assembly elected at the general election in 1970. Notwithstanding Section 6(b) of Article IV, the incumbent Lieutenant Governor for the remainder of his term shall be the President of the Senate with a right to vote when the Senate is equally divided.

(b) Section 9(a) of Article VII shall become effective on December 1, 1971.

(c) Section 2 of Article VIII shall become effective on January 1, 1972.

(d) The second sentence of Section 2 of Article XI shall become effective on January 1, 1972.

(e) Sections 2 and 4 of Article XIII shall become effective on January 1, 1972.

Sect. 2. Prospective Operation of Bill of Rights: Any rights, procedural or substantive, created for the first time by Article I shall be prospective and not retroactive.

Sect. 3. Election of Executive Officers: The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State and Comptroller elected in 1972 shall serve for four years and those elected in 1976 for two years. The Treasurer elected in 1974 shall serve for four years.

Sect. 4. Judicial Offices: (a) On the effective date of this Constitution, Associate Judges and magistrates shall become Circuit Judges and Associate Judges, respectively, of their Circuit Courts. All laws and rules of court theretofore applicable to Associate Judges and magistrates shall remain in force and be applicable to the persons in their new offices until changed by the General Assembly or the Supreme Court, as the case may be.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 11 of Article VI, magistrates in office on the effective date thereof are eligible to serve as Associate Judges.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 18 of Article VI, the Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Clerks of the Appellate Court Districts in office on the effective date of this Constitution shall continue in office until the expiration of their elective terms.

(d) Until otherwise provided by law and except to the extent that the authority is inconsistent with section 8 of Article VII, the Circuit Courts shall continue to exercise the non-judicial functions vested by law as of December 31, 1963, in county courts or the judges thereof.

Sect. 5. Local Government: (a) The number of members of a county board in a county which, as of the effective date of this Constitution, elects three members at large may be changed only as approved by countywide referendum. If the number of members of such a county board is changed by countywide referendum, the provisions of Section 3(a) of Article VII relating to the number of members of a county board shall govern thereafter.

(b) In Cook County, until (1) a method of election of county board members different from the method in existence on the effective date of this Constitution is approved by a majority of votes cast both in Chicago and in the area outside Chicago in a county-wide referendum or (2) the Cook County Board by ordinance divides the county into single member districts from which members of the County Board resident in each district are elected, the number of members of the Cook County Board shall be fifteen except that the county board may increase the number if necessary to comply with apportionment requirements. If either of the foregoing changes is made, the provisions of Section 3(a) of Article VII shall apply thereafter to Cook County.

(c) Townships in existence on the effective date of this Constitution are continued until consolidated, merged, divided or dissolved in accordance with Section 5 of Article VII.

Sect. 6. Authorized Bonds: Nothing in Section 9 of Article IX shall be construed to limit or impair the power to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness authorized but unissued on the effective date of this Constitution.

Sect. 7. Superintendent of Public Instruction: Section

2(b) of Article X shall take effect upon the existence of a vacancy in the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction but no later than the end of the term of the Superintendent of Public Instruction elected in 1970.

Sect. 8. Cumulative Voting for Directors: Shareholders of all corporations heretofore organized under any law of this State which requires cumulative voting of shares for corporate directors shall retain their right to vote cumulatively for such directors.

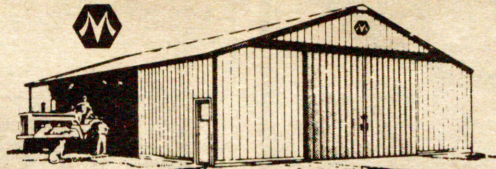

Sect. 9. General Transition: The rights and duties of all public bodies shall remain as if this Constitution had not been adopted with the exception of such changes as are contained in this Constitution. All laws, ordinances, regulations and rules of court not contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this Constitution shall remain in force, until they shall expire by their own limitation or shall be altered or repealed pursuant to this Constitution. The validity of all public and private bonds, debts and contracts, and of all suits, actions and rights of action, shall continue as if no change had taken place. All officers filling any office by election or appointment shall continue as if no change had taken place.

All officers filling any office by election or appointment shall continue to exercise the duties thereof, until their offices shall have been abolished or their successors selected and qualified in accordance with this Constitution or laws enacted.

Sect. 10. Accelerated Effective Date: The effective date of Section 3 of Article IV shall be January 15, 1971.

For purposes of appointing members of a Legislative Redistricting Commission in 1971, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall have the appointing power vested by Section 3(b) of Article IV in the President of the Senate.

Lewis-St. Francis names admissions co-directors

LOCKPORT -- Co-directors of admissions have been appointed at Lewis-St. Francis by the college presidents, Brother Paul French, F.S.C., and Dr. Francis J. Kerins.

They are Brother James J. Cantwell, F.S.C., director of admissions of Lewis College since 1965, and Sister Catherine Pesche, O.S.F. who has held the same position with the College of St. Francis since 1962.

A member of the board of directors of the National Catholic Educational Association, Washington, D.C., Brother James has been president of the Secondary School Department of N.C.E.A. for the past three years. He came to Lewis College in 1962 as an instructor in sociology, and later served as dean of students.

Sister Catherine was vice principal of St. Francis Academy in Joliet for 11 years prior to becoming director of admissions at the College of St. Francis. She previously had been assistant librarian at the college and had taught at St. Francis de Sales High School, Chicago, over 12 years.

JEAN ROUSE

Jean's World Of Women

November 11. Veterans' Day. I am so old I remember when it was Armistice Day. The eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month; the end of the "War to End War." But it didn't.

When I was a small child, my father used to attend breakfast with a group of disabled veterans. After breakfast, those who were able marched in a parade. Dad was World War I, Navy, and never after that was he able to march much of any place. He lived a long time. But he lived with disabilities which never let him forget Armistice Day.

That war was a great sadness for many of those men. It didn't accomplish what they hoped it would. It didn't accomplish much of anything except loss of life, and pain, and careers never built.

The same thing is true of the wars which have been fought since, World War II; Korea; and the most prolonged and dirty horror of all, Viet Nam!

There have been times in our history when we fought to defend our country. If we had not done so we would not have had a country. Even now, if somebody invaded our shores I'd encourage any able-bodied son of mine to defend me. I'd even defend myself as far as possible. But I do not understand Viet Nam!

Other wars were easier to sell. They were packaged with flag waving and bands and glory. The man who went to fight could at least feel it was his duty. For some, it was a release from the mundane; from certain responsibilities. And some of them never got over fighting their war. For them, after the excitement of war, the rest of life became dust in the hand. Perhaps they were the most tragically injured of all.

But in Viet Nam, most of us have forgotten how we got there; what we thought we were protecting; and worse, what do we do now? And for us, the anguish we endured when our Marine was at Dong Ha makes Viet Nam a very personal thing.

Our Marine and most of the men who have served in Viet Nam feel there was a job to be done. They tried to do it. But the bungling of the effort and the contempt of many of their peers has left a deep bitterness with many of these young men.

Their physical scars have largely healed. But the scars of their souls are more painful to live with. Just as do physical scars, scars of the soul become irritated and produce fresh pain from time to time. Under the conscious surface, they remember. They remember rain and mud and noise and fire and blood and human misery. And in our own case, we remember Mike Ledebur and Paul Stein and Paul Pratt -- and too many others.

I believe deeply in setting aside this day to remember these men. And I believe even more deeply in giving them a little more appreciation and a little more help the rest of the year too!

I don't much enjoy parades of brass bands and uniforms marching by. They make me cry. I am proud of my country and of its flag. And I am very proud of the two of my sons who fought for it. But the gay attitude of some which seems to say "look how many people we killed -- aren't you proud of us?" makes me sick!

Whatever justification there has been for war; whatever necessity there has been to engage in war -- should not obscure the meaning of this day of remembrance. We must remember those who died; remember with love and appreciation. We must remember also those who lived, but with injuries which gave them only half-lives. And we had better use this "remembering" to think about making a world where these things do not happen and not a celebration in honor of "Look, Ma! We Won!"

I cannot sympathize with the sneering young who say the country isn't worth fighting for. And I certainly cannot sympathize with the "non-violent" who never fought a war and don't know what it was like, but nevertheless are out to improve the world by setting it on fire and throwing rocks at it.

The world hasn't much hope of "peace" in the immediate future, I fear. But on this Veterans' Day, I pray that people who care will make a fresh commitment to try, no matter how hopeless the job sometimes looks; a commitment to try, no matter how hopeless the job sometimes looks; a commitment to try, each one of us, to be one of the world's "solutions," and not one of its "problems!"

Teri Calkins is married

FRANKFORT -- Teri Calkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Calkins, 17 S. Main St., Rushville, N.Y. was married to Keith R. Schram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Schram, 220 Hickory St., Frankfort, on July 26. The double ring ceremony was performed in her parents home with Father David Ambushe of the Anglican Church of Rochester officiating.

The bride, escorted down the staircase on the arm of her father, wearing an off-white crepe knit two piece, floor length skirt, long tunic top, gold belted at waist. She carried a single red rose.

Barbara Ann Calkins and Peggy Ann Calkins, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Barbara wore a lilac floor length skirt with a lilac and green print tunic and carried a single pink rose. Peggy wore a green floor length skirt with a lilac and green print tunic and carried a single yellow rose.

Grooms attendants were David Moyer and Chris Klasning.

The bride's mother wore a beige print knit dress with beige accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige sheath with a lace coat and aqua accessories and a yellow carnation corsage.

Honored guests were the grandparents, Mrs. Barbara Nieland, Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weir, Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Calkins, Geneva, N.Y.

The grooms parents had an "Open House" for the bride and groom at St. Peter's United Church parlor upon their return to Illinois. The refreshment table was decorated in green and lilac, with Mrs. Arlan Schram, Mrs. Alan Schram, Mrs. Dennis Kimsey and Kristal Nieland in charge. Mrs. Scott Stahl was in charge of the guest book.

They are now making their home in Lemont where Keith is a math teacher and assistant football and basketball coach at Lemont High School. They both received their BA degrees from Elmhurst College.

MR. AND MRS. K. E. LOWRY

Silver anniversary

LOCKPORT -- Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Lowry, 1224 Madison St., Lockport, recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at a reception in the Shepherd of the Hill Lutheran Church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Swenson, Jr., 808 Valley Lane, were host and hostess. Mrs. Swenson and Mrs. Lowry are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spangler of Lockport.

The celebrants have five children, Kathy, Dan, Craig, and Russell, all of Lockport, and Mrs. Larry (Linda Kay) Wride, Salt Lake City.

Dave Merrick does it again

The team winner, Maine East of Park Ridge, was a surprise in the IHSA cross country state finals in Peoria last weekend, but there was no surprise to anyone that the individual winner was Dave Merrick, Mokena, a senior at Lincoln-Way High School.

Merrick won the event last year and every other cross-country event since, plus the two-mile run in the state high school track meet at Champaign-Urbana last spring.

A modest, unassuming chap, more interested in the fortunes of the Lincoln-Way cross country and track teams than in his own, he is recognized nationally for his successes as a distance runner. He is regarded as one of the best prep school route runners in the country. At the annual cross-country run in Peoria Merrick's time of 12:37.7 was another new course record for him.

The previous mark for the course was 12:56.5, set earlier this year by Don Pittenger, Fremd, Palatine, at an invitational cross country meet in which L-W was not entered.

Pittenger, who finished second to Merrick last Saturday, said afterward that he thought he could have stayed with Merrick for the first two miles, "but then I probably would just about died trying to finish the race," he said.

Fremd apparently had won the team title at Peoria, with East second. The results were altered, however, when it ruled that a Fremd runner, Mike Pitchell, cut inside a flag on the backstretch and was disqualified. That meant 26 points were added to Fremd's score, for a total of 139. Maine East had 129.

This was the fourth straight year for Lincoln-Way at the state cross-country meet. As a team this year, Lincoln-Way finished 11th.

Lincoln-Way clobbered by Evergreen Park

EVERGREEN PARK — Lincoln-Way High School's Knights wound up their 1970 football season here last Saturday losing to the Mustangs of Evergreen Park 49 to 0.

Lincoln-Way had a bad year but the Knights were consistent. They never broke out of the loss column. The boys — all green at the start of the year — have gained some experience and next year are expected to show great improvement next year.

The Southwest Suburban Conference football championship went to Carl Sandburg, Orland Park, again this year. The Sandburgs were unbeaten.

The Sandburg Eagles barely squeaked by Homewood-Flossmoor, 21-20, last Saturday.

In other SWS games Saturday Oak Lawn beat Bremen, 21 to 7; Rich East beat Reavis, 40 to 6.

Reuther a good prospect

LOCKPORT — Although just a sophomore, Robin Reuther is making his presence felt on Illinois State University's football team.

The six foot, three inch, 205-pound Lockport Central graduate has seen extensive action as a defensive tackle at ISU.

"Robin had an extremely good spring," said Illinois State coach Larry Bitcon. "He's not real big as defensive tackles go, but he has good mobility and fits into our defensive plans very well. His quickness and toughness offset his lack of size somewhat. He's a very good young prospect."

Lemont in upset win over Dwight

LEMONT — The Lemont Indians, under the watchful eye of Chief Keppataw, beat the Dwight Trojans 14-8 at Lemont last Saturday. The win is an upset since the Dwight Trojans have been declared the 1970 champs of the Northeast Conference (NEC). It seems that the Indians hadn't heard the news before the scalping. Quarterback Mike Kennedy led the raid.

The Indians got an edge in the first 2½ minutes of the game. A 36 yard pass from Kennedy to Ken Sniegowski put 6 points on the board in a hurry. A two point conversion failed, but the early difference was the final payoff for the Indians.

The Trojans came right back in the first quarter by returning the kick 69 yards. A 37 yard pass from Jeff Drinan to Jeff Scott brought the game to a tie. The Trojans moved ahead in the game when Mark Battrell carried the ball for a two-point conversion.

For the balance of the half, the Indians played better ball control than the Trojans.

In the second quarter, Indian Jim Weck returned a Trojan punt 55 yards to the Trojan nine-yard line. Kennedy took the ball over the line five plays later. His pass to Hutchinson on the conversion brought the score to 14-8 for the Indians.

Lemont also dominated the second half on offensive plays but the Trojans threatened in the final minutes. Passes by Jeff Drinan were picked off by Indian defenses. A Trojan pass to the Lemont 18 was the biggest threat in the final quarter. But time ran out and the Indians scored a scalping on the heretofore unblemished Trojan record.

Flag football awards given out in Lockport

LOCKPORT — Flag Football awards were recently presented by the Lockport Township Park District. Trophy winners in the Bantam Division were American League Champs, Dellwood Vikings; most valuable player, Joe Klajich; runner-up most valuable player was awarded to David Steidel.

Bronc's elect officers

NEW LENOX -- The New Lenox Bronc Busters met October 26 at the 4-H Francis Field.

They elected new officers: Florence Smith, president; Kathy Cullnan, vice-president; Pat Mitchell, treasurer; Jamie Dalton and Lynn Sartori, reporters, and Kathy Hentsch in charge of recreation.

Junior leaders are Pam Matia, Dru Colbert, Pat Mitchell, Kathy Cullnan, Florence Smith and Lori Gougar.

Federation delegates are Kathy Hentsch and Dru Colbert. Alternate delegates are Pam Matia and Barb Banas.

Local members were invited to a "play on horseback," which was scheduled for last Saturday.

The next meeting will be held November 23 at the 4-H Field in New Lenox at 7 p.m.

Knights win another cross-country title

NEW LENOX — The Knights of Lincoln-Way have won their third consecutive cross-country championship in the Southwest Suburban Conference here last Wednesday afternoon. The triumph in league circles came between the sectional and finals of the state meet.

The Knights went through the conference season without a loss as did their lead-harrier, Dave Merrick, of Mokena.

In the conference title meet, the Knights came up with 22 points. Carl Sandburg was second with a total of 79.

Al Logsdon, Lincoln-Way

cross-country coach, was pleased with his team's successes, especially since the runners have been improving every week.

In the conference meet, Merrick was first across the finish line of the 2.75 mile course in 13:22; another course record for the ace router. Lee Erickson, a junior, was second in 14:21.

Dave Gavin, Sandburg, was third and John Been and Bill Simpson, Lincoln - Way, fourth and fifth respectively.

Phil McAndrew and Steve Peterson, of Lincoln-Way have been showing steady improvement, according to Longsdon. In the conference meet McAndrew finished 10th and Peterson, 11th.

Homewood - Flossmoor won the frosh-soph division in the SWS conference.

21 Providence seniors get state scholarships

NEW LENOX — Twenty-one seniors from Providence High School, New Lenox, have been named state scholars in a state-wide scholarship competition. Father Roger L. Kaffer, Providence principal, has announced.

Sponsor of the scholarships is the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, a state agency.

Awards were based on approval by the school administration, individual rank in class and grades in the American College Testing Program.

All state scholars will receive certificates of merit. To receive a monetary scholarship a student must enter a recognized college in Illinois, and must show economic need for the funds. The amount awarded in each case will be determined by the extent of need.

This year's state scholars from Providence are:

John Avila, Patricia Bobak, William Bagner, Marguerite Butler, John Clemens, Donald

Senior citizens get free tags

LEMONT — Lemont senior citizens who will be 65, on or before December 1, 1970 are eligible for free auto vehicle tags, it was announced by the Lemont Chamber of Commerce.

Applications will be available at the Carousel, Strand Drugs, United Cleaners and the Lemont Savings and Loan.

Rich Hancasky asks that applications be mailed to him before December 31, 1970.

Ice is nice but wheels will suffice

Practice makes perfect, even if one must practice ice hockey on wheels.

Twenty-two determined Woodridge boys have beat the high cost of ice-rental and taken to an outdoor roller rink on East Ogden Avenue in Naperville for their practice sessions.

Each individual player pays for his own equipment, and for games, the team pays its own ice rental, which runs $30-40.

As yet, the team has no name, and has only played one game, which they lost to a Chicago Heights team.

"We hope to get into the Naperville Park District League," said Phil Munson, a 7th grader and the team's youngest member. In the meantime, they are searching for opposition.

Learning telephone skills

NEW LENOX — "Hello."
"Is Mr. Collins there?"
"May I ask who is calling, please?"

"This is Mr. Bowman."
"I'm sorry, Mr. Bowman, but Mr. Collins is not in at the moment. May I take a message?"

Students in Lincoln-Way High School English Classes learn more than the prose and poetry of William Shakespeare; nouns, verbs and conjugations. A somewhat more practical approach stresses skills in the use of language.

The dialog here is from a unit that emphasizes telephone skills. With the use of teletrainers, devices which have two telephones connected by a loudspeaker system, students act out situations they might encounter in real life while other students listen. What to do in case of an accident, how to take the message, how a baby sitter should answer a phone without revealing the parents are not at home, and placing long distance calls are among the problems students cope with.

While students act out problems on the telephone, other class members listen over the speaker system. Usually the pupil making the call takes his phone into the corridor or another room to give the situation more realism.

Other skills also are stressed. For instance, in the second grading period students will have a chance to improve their newspaper-reading skills.

Others may write their own newspaper articles based on the facts in old folk tales, like, "Miss Gold E. Lox was picked up by police last night on a charge of breaking and entering." Still others will study the paper for vocabulary development, context clues, and other reading skills.

Some teachers may have students write editorials. Others will have their students give speeches, using newspapers as source materials.

In the English curriculum at Lincoln-Way, students study communication skills as well as syntax and diction.

Lockport bank gets a charter

LOCKPORT — The new Bank of Lockport has received a charter from the State of Illinois Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies. The issuance of the charter permits the bank to begin construction on the new building, and to open for business as soon as it is completed.

The charter was presented by Roland W. Blaha, State Commissioner of Banks and Trusts Companies, at his office in Springfield.

Commenting on the issuance of the charter, board chairman Vernon S. Hoesch said, "We're very glad to have the charter in hand, and look forward to getting started on the new building. We're still hopeful that the Bank of Lockport will be open and ready to serve the people of Lockport area shortly after the first of the year."

The new bank will be built at 822-26 East 9th Street in Lockport, adjacent to the main Lockport fire station.

Joan Anderson, 9th district delegate to the Constitutional Convention, gets back into the swing of life at home now that the convention is over. Her sons, Grant, 9, and Phillip, 13, seem to have mixed emotions about having mother back to supervise things like piano practice. Staff photo by Jac Stafford.

About socks, semantics, legislation

By Kay Coletta

When Loretta Young played the "Farmer's Daughter" and set Washington on its ear she didn't have to worry about whether or not the teenagers at home had clean socks for gym. The real-life ladies who made up the largest feminine contingent ever to serve in an Illinois legislative body had to worry about socks as well as semantics, however, when they helped revise the state's 100 year constitution during this year's constitutional convention.

Joan Anderson, Western Springs, represented the 9th district at the convention and was one of 15 women delegates in that august body.

Mrs. Anderson had a lot of things going for her which helped her make the transition from her house to the state house. As an active member of the League of Women Voters she campaigned for the Constitutional Convention and worked on a number of studies of local government.

She was assigned to the local government committee and spent a good deal of her time working on the "home rule" article which has received so much publicity.

Mrs. Anderson has promised to write a comprehensive explanation of that article for local newspapers before the Con-Con vote Dec. 13.

While mother was off in Springfield, the Anderson family was managing "almost too well."

Joan and her husband, Dan, decided they should hire a housekeeper to "keep things level" while mother was away. This arrangement worked fairly well, but, at one point, the family did veto one housekeeper and another had to be found.

When their 19 year old daughter, Patty, came home from college for summer vacation the Andersons decided to "hire" her as the housekeeper.

"She was very pleased to get some experience in running a home. She's a very good cook so the family enjoyed it too," Mrs. Anderson said.

One of the pluses to come from the summer was a new closeness which developed between Patty and her brothers, Clark, 17; Phillip, 13; and Grant, 9. "They really got to know one another well," their mother reported.

The Anderson children are not "emotionally dependent" so they were able to adjust easily to their mother being away.

Because Mrs. Anderson was away during the week, and her husband was also doing some traveling at the same time, the family made an extra effort to spend weekends together and put more effort into "communicating" than they might have under normal conditions.

Because of the housekeeper, Mrs. Anderson did not come home each weekend to any major housekeeping problems, but, "you'd be surprised how much maintenance work we do day by day without really noticing it. Things like painting and furniture repair and getting shoes repaired didn't get done as they would have if I had been there each day."

Mrs. Anderson said the men delegates complained far more about losing time with their families than the women. "When the men went home, they had to go to work at their regular jobs, but when we went home we were able to stay at home and catch up on things there."

The ladies in the convention were having more problems in Springfield, however.

One of the most serious to the ladies, but not to the state, was the lack of a ladies' restroom within running distance of the assembly room.

There was, of course, the famous "Lottie's Potty," a small convenience installed near the assembly room for Illinois' first lady representative Lottie Holman O'Neill.

This "convenience" was kept locked, however, and the lady delegates did not have keys. The Secretary of State, who had jurisdiction over the room, promised to keep an attendant there with a key, but often neither the attendant nor the key could be found.

Most days the delegates were swamped with extremely important, serious work, but there were other times when a little levity or excitement helped break up the taxing job the delegates were embroiled in.

"There were some really hilarious moments during the floor discussions on women's lib. Some of the women's lib advocates in the gallery didn't think they were funny, though," Mrs. Anderson said.

There was a great deal of excitement the night Francis Lawlor, a former Chicago Roman Catholic priest, appeared to testify at a committee meeting to ask for some anti-abortion regulations to be placed in the new constitution.

Throughout the day, it was rumored that he would bring with him to the hearing, a fetus preserved in formaldehyde. Finally, as the committee members and press watched breathlessly, the former priest stalked into the room and, just as had been rumored, he carried a large jar in which a fetus had been preserved.

Despite the dramatic presentation, no clause on abortion is included in the constitution. It remains a legislative duty to regulate the controversial issue.

One of the most surprising aspects of the convention to Mrs. Anderson was the "openmindedness" of the older delegates.

"Those over 50 seemed far more broadminded than the younger delegates," she said.

Now that the convention is over, the delegates have taken on the grueling job of explaining the new constitution. Mrs. Anderson had a total of 57 speeches to make, but most of them are over now.

All that remains is the voters' decision on the new document and that will come Dec. 13.

An easy reducing plan for Long Distance budgets.

Here are a few simple exercises that'll help you trim down the out-of-state Long Distance portion of your phone bill.

Exercise number 1: Take your forefinger and dial the number yourself. If you're calling out-of-state, 200 miles or more, it's cheaper to dial direct than to go through the Operator.

Exercise number 2: Scribble down this note to yourself a hundred times: "Evening bargain rates now start at 5 pm instead of 7 pm on weekdays. Bigger bargains apply all day on Saturday; and Sunday till 5 pm."

Exercise number 3: Switch off the late show and sprint over to the nearest phone. Because every night from 11 pm to 8 am, you can dial a one-minute call for as little as 35¢ or less. For each additional minute, the rate dips to 20¢ or less.

You'll be amazed what these little exercises can do to trim your Long Distance phone bill. To learn more (including tips for calls within the state, too), write to Illinois Bell, Box LD-30D, 225 W. Randolph, Chicago, Ill. 60606.

We'll send you the free folder "How to Get More for Your Money on Long Distance Calls." It's guaranteed to get rid of budget bulge.

A Thought To Remember BY BOB HIRSCH

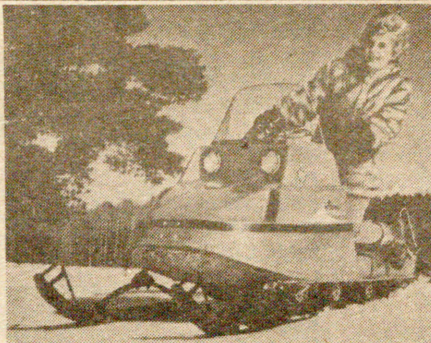

How and when can one label a person a success — or failure? For example, do you remember who said, "I do the very best I know how, the very best I can, and I mean to keep doing so" . . . ?

The man who said that had many heartbreaking reverses. In his time, many people classed him a failure. His record showed a business failure in '31 . . . defeated for Legislature in '32 . . . another business failure in '33 . . . elected to Legislature in '34 . . . his sweetheart died in '35 . . . he had a nervous breakdown in '36 . . . defeated for Speaker in '38 . . . defeated for Elector in '40 . . . again defeated for Congress in '43 . . . finally elected to Congress in '48 but then defeated for the Senate in '55. Finally, in '60 he was elected PRESIDENT!

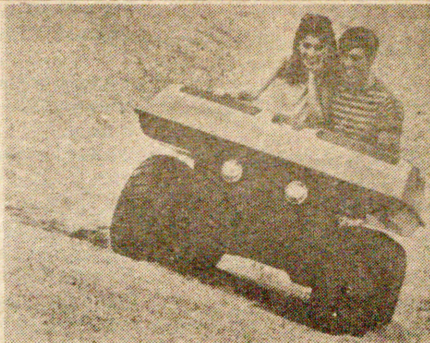

A failure? NO! A success? Certainly. Who was the man who lived through the frustrations, the despair of so many defeats? Who was the man who proved there is no such thing as lasting defeat for one who strives to succeed? The immortal Abraham Lincoln! . . .

Help to clean school yard

Frieda Wille
Telephone 469-5277

There'll be no school Nov. 11 because of Veterans Day. On Oct. 24, several people went to the school and cleaned-up the school yard. Helping were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nicholson, Mrs. Albert Brooks, Mrs. Phil Steck, Mrs. Jack Newton and Ferne Griggs and sons. Albert Brooks donated his time and truck to haul the junk away.

The Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 378 went on a hike and outing Saturday to Pilcher Park. After hiking through the woods and seeing the nature center and green house a wiener roast was held. There were 10 Junior girl scouts and two Brownies who attended. They were accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Sulkowski and Mrs. Eddie Fields. At their regular meeting on Oct. 28, a Halloween Party, complete with a spook house was enjoyed by all. The red patrol was in charge of the party.

The charter has been signed for Cub Scout Pack No. 237. Twenty boys have signed up and they have a cubmaster, committeemen and den mothers, so they will soon be ready to start things going. The first committee meeting was held Oct. 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kovat. All den mothers and committee members were present. This was also a training meeting. Two den mothers, Mrs. Joyce Waldrop and Mrs. Joan Piha, from Frankfort were present. Den 1 will meet on Wednesdays after school at the Richard Kovar residence and den 2 will meet on Tuesdays at Bob Heanen residence. The date and place of the pack meetings will be announced later.

Mrs. Robert Seamon entertained at a fifth birthday party for her daughter, Karen, on Oct. 23. Guests were the 18 members of her kindergarten class at Ann Rutledge School. Cup cakes, ice cream and pop was served to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson and daughter at Urbana...

Mr. Emereth Boyden spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Frieda Whitaker at Chesterton, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kaehler together with the other members of their social club had dinner at the Rosewood Inn on Saturday evening. After dinner they returned to the Walter Johnson home in Chicago for the evening...

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wheeler entertained at a family dinner on Sunday, Oct. 25, in honor of the first birthday of their daughter, Wendy, and the first birthday of Diane Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Wheeler of Byron, Ill. Those present besides the birthday girls were Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and Christie, Bryon, Ill; Mrs. Dave Schuel and children, Schererville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler and Linda and Harry Curdello...

St. Anthony's Catholic, Fr. Miles Kowski, O.F.M. Pastor. Telephone 469-5038, if no answer call 312-

479-5301. Devotions to our Lady of Fatima, Saturday evening at 6:15 p.m. Saturday mass at 6:45 a.m., Sunday masses at 9 and 10:30 a.m.

Calvary Baptist. Rev. Charles Blackwell, Pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m., Sunday morning worship services at 11 a.m. Sunday evening gospel services at 7 p.m. Prayer meeting and Bible study at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Car leaps rail, woman injured

MOKENA — An icy Wolf Rd. overpass at I-80 and 187th street caused an auto accident which resulted in injury to an Orland Park woman Nov. 3.

Injured was Mrs. Charm Johnson, 29, of 9924 La-Reina. She was treated at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet, and released.

Police said Mrs. Johnson's car apparently went out of control on the overpass, jumped a guard rail, and rolled down a 20-foot embankment, landing right side up.

Mrs. Johnson, who was driving, was thrown into the back seat of the car, where she was pinned, and had to be freed by Mokena firemen.

Reading fun at the library

LOCKPORT — The "Story Hour" at the Lockport Township Main Library will be at 10:30 a.m. instead of 10 a.m., starting Saturday, Nov. 14. Story hour at Crest Hill Branch will remain at 1 p.m.

In keeping with Thanksgiving, "The Gingerbread Boy," "Lets go to Plymouth with the Pilgrims," "The Thanksgiving Story" and "Little Bears Thanksgiving" will be read at the Lockport Main library.

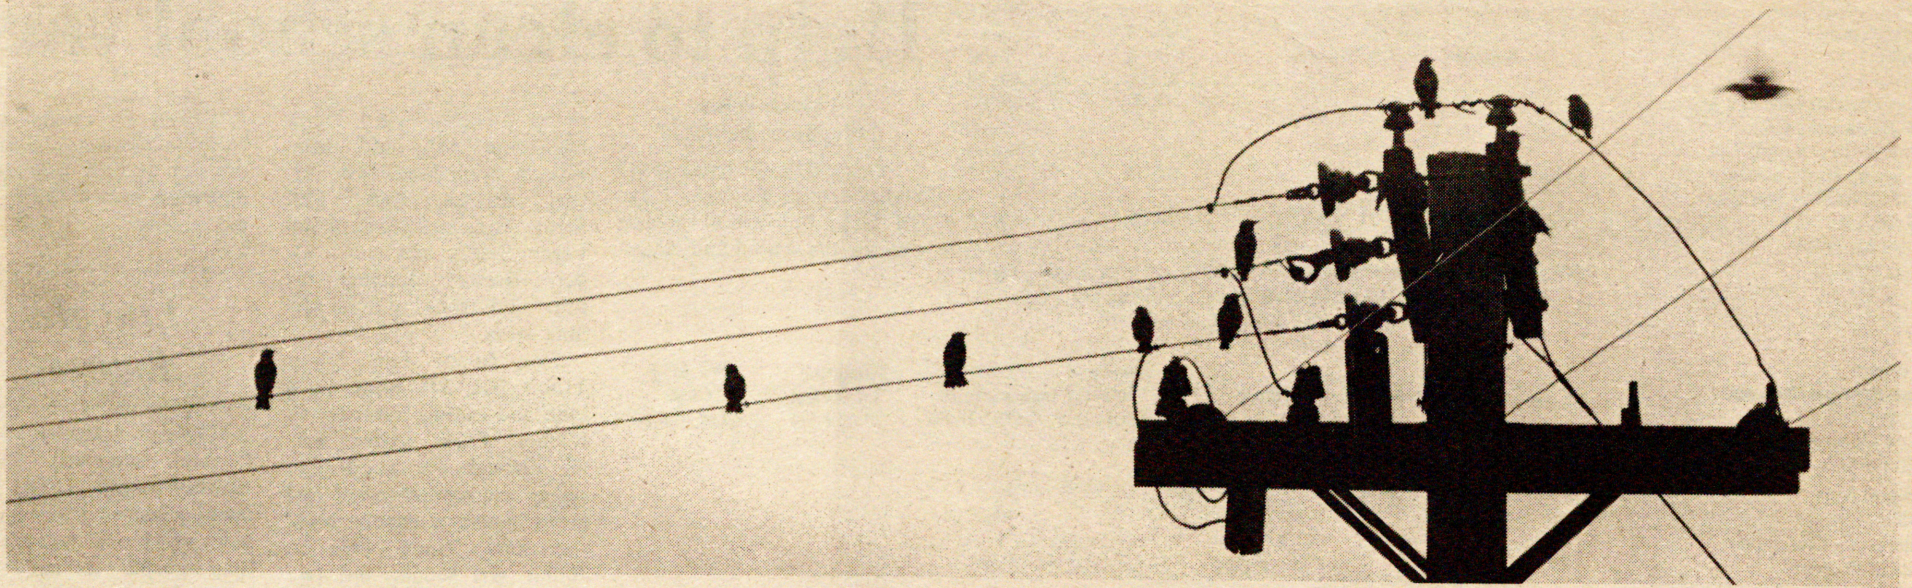

The party for all children completing the Harvest Reading Club at Lockport Main will be on Saturday, Nov. 28 by invitation.

Fatally shot

LOCKPORT -- A 32-year old Milton township resident, apparently despondent over a fatal auto accident which he was involved in recently, apparently shot and killed himself Nov. 1.

State police said the body of James V. Stonis, was found in a wooded area near 167th street and Wolf Road. Police reported they found a shotgun near the body,

It should be noted that Indians ran this country for many years before the white man arrived and they did it without income taxes.

Eavesdropping or a meeting of the Wiresitters Club? Perhaps. But more likely a good resting place.

Dems, GOP split in Will County

Will County voters split at the local level in the general election Nov. 3 and elected two out of the four candidates running.

The Republicans won with two incumbents, Clara Hartley Woodard, county clerk, and Boyd R. Bucher, county superintendent of schools. They lost for county treasurer and sheriff.

Joseph Trizna, former sheriff and former Joliet police chief, was successful in his bid for re-election, running as a Democrat, as was Kent Bosworth. Bosworth, former Joliet township clerk, beat W.F. (Wally) Schuetz, incumbent treasurer.

The unofficial returns for the 195 precincts for these four offices are:

County Clerk

*Clara Woodard (R) 136,336
Joseph Danzero (D) 29,948

County Treasurer

Kent Bosworth (D) 34,193
*W.F. Schuetz (R) 31,064

Sheriff

Joseph Trizna (D) 37,084
Earl Cantone (R) 29,504

Supt. of Schools

*Boyd R. Bucher (R) 35,281
Eric Matysiak (D) 29,819
(*Incumbents)

The Republicans, however, won two seats in the legislature in the 41st District, which is comprised of Will County, and the Democrats retained one.

The Democrat to remain is John Houlihan, who is also chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee. He led the legislative candidates, chosen by cumulative voting, with a total of 53,105 1/2. Robert Blair (R) received 45,835 votes and George O'Brien (R), Joliet lawyer and a new entry in the legislative field, totalled 44,651 1/2.

Adlai Stevenson III, who carried the state over U.S. Sen. Ralph T. Smith, also did so in Will County. He polled 32,357 in Will to 31,986 for Smith.

Edmund J. Kucharski (R), candidate for state treasurer, lost to Alan J. Dixon (D) in the state but beat him in Will County, 32,843 to 29,677. Ray Page (R), state superintendent of schools seeking reelection, also carried Will County over Michael J. Bakalis (D), 31,728 to 30,886, but lost in the state.

Rep. John Erlenborn (R) was reelected congressman of the 14th District, of which Joliet, Lockport and DuPage Townships are a part with DuPage County, but lost to William J. Adamson (D) in Will County, 20,057 to 18,226. Rep. Leslie Arends (R) piled up 16,678 votes in Will County to 9,966 votes for Peter A. Hawthorne.

State Sen. Harris Fawell

(R), Naperville, was reelected from the 40th District, beating John T. Perry (D), Glen Ellyn. Perry beat him in Will County, 7,547 to 6,779 but Fawell carried DuPage County approximately 24,000 to 12,000.

The junior rockhounds keeping busy in Homer

HOMER — The first meeting of the Homer Junior Chapter of the Earth Science Club of Northern Illinois (ESCONI) was Saturday at the Homer School gymnasium.

New officers for the current school year are Mrs. David Dyer, serving her second term as junior study group leader; Mrs. H. Hiller, Jr., secretary; George Apaté, treasurer; Mrs.

Mike Zacate, ESCONI member and earth science teacher at Evergreen Park High School, was the featured speaker. He spoke on geology, and displayed several specimens. A slide-illustrated discussion oriented students to the five major areas of study covered in ESCONI.

Mrs. Dyer narrated slides of last year's meetings and the Homer Junior's Display Festival.

As children arrived, each one was allowed to select a geode or fern fossil of Illinois as a reward for being "on time." A quartzite specimen from the Black Hills of South Dakota was awarded to Joel Steindel.

The next meeting is Saturday, November 21 at 2 p.m. at the Homer School.

New member for Fire Flies

HOMER — The Homer Fire Flies 4-H Club recently met at the Homer Town Hall. The group welcomed Pat Olha as a new member.

Committees were appointed for candy, a hayrack ride, and Christmas gifts for the Guardian Angel Home in Joliet. A committee for Achievement Night was also appointed.

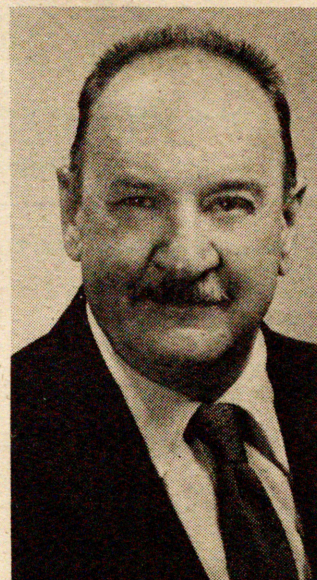

The program was given by Dortha, Mary Alice, and Cecelia Konow.

Achievement Night will be November 17 at the Homer Town Hall. All parents have been invited to attend.

Top scholar

LEMONT — Kathleen Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murray, 714 Ridge Road, Lemont, was one of ten seniors from Mount Assisi Academy recently named state scholar in the 1971-72 Illinois state scholarship program.

Other state scholars from Mount Assisi are Virginia Colby, Patti Flynn, Louise Gregor, Bernadette Kosek, Kathy Messer, Nancy Peterson, Janice Prunsky, Rosemary Relles, and Judith Senk.

RETIRED

Louis F. Mowery, 310 Godfrey Ave., Lockport, recently retired from active service at Texaco's Lockport plant. Employed at Texaco since 1936, spent most of his career in the instrument department. At retirement he was classified as a No. 1 instrumentman.

Literacy in Formosa now exceeds 90 percent.

If waters from the Colorado River were cut off from the Imperial Valley of Southeastern California for 90 days all crops would probably die.

Fire Skit, Magic Show for Scouts

LEMONT — Scout Pack 149 held its monthly pack meeting Wednesday, October 28, at the V.F.W. building, with an estimated 250 people in attendance enjoying a night of good scouting fun and entertainment.

Activities consisted of a fire prevention skit and magic shows, all performed by the dens. Presentation of Wolf and Bear Badges, Gold and Silver Arrows and Webelo Athletic Medals were made to the scouts in recognition of their achievements.

New scouts and den mothers were welcomed, bringing the membership to 80 scouts, divided into 9 cub scout dens and 1 webelo group.

The next pack meeting will be held on November 18th at the V.F.W. All parents are reminded that their participation in scouting activities along with their youngsters is a great encouragement to scouting. Please contact any committee member or den mother to volunteer any assistance.

Fire guts area motel

MOKENA — The Oak Park Motel, U.S. 30 at Wolf Rd., which has been closed for months, burned in the early morning hours Nov. 3. Mokena firemen fought the blaze from midnight to 4 a.m. The cause was not determined.

A passing motorist turned in an alarm. By the time firemen could arrive flames were breaking through the roof, according to Fire Chief Robert Rust.

The structure was of brick and concrete, but the roof and some parts were of wood, and that burned. The property is owned by Justas Lieponis, who owns the Old Oak Golf Course at 143rd St. and Parker.

According to a sign on the premises the property, including the three-acre site, is for lease or sale. It was reported that the asking price was $80,000.

Thefts at three area schools

Last week was "Thief Week" in three area schools. Burglars broke into Sacred Heart High School at the beginning of the week. They also entered Willowcrest School in Mokena, and Chelsea School in Frankfort last Wednesday night.

The best haul was reported at the Mokena school where the burglar got $26 in cash, a Polaroid camera and accessories, valued at more than $100, and a tape recorder, valued at about $50. The thief also damaged a pencil vending machine by breaking into its cash box. The cash box, however, had been emptied by school officials that afternoon. A desk in the office was also damaged and some windows were broken.

At Frankfort, $2 in cash was stolen plus a tape recorder valued at around $50. No damage was done to any of the school furnishings. As at Mokena, entry was gained by breaking windows.

At Sacred Heart High School, in St. Francis Woods, no damage was done to any of the office furnishings, and only a small amount of cash was taken.

Nurses meet

The Licensed Practical Nurses will hold their meeting at Mercyville Hospital in Aurora Thursday, November 19.

The board meeting will start at 6:30 p.m. and the regular meeting at 7:30 p.m.

FOREMAN

Eugene Pope has been appointed to the position of foreman (air and water conservation department) at Texaco's Lockport plant. Employed at Texaco since 1944, most of his service has been in the coke department and chemical plant. For the last three years he has held the position of night foreman. He lives at 921 First St., Lockport.

Georgia has 159 counties.

A commemorative postage stamp honoring Pres. Dwight Eisenhower will be issued.

Towns can shop early for Yuletide

Municipalities are in a position to do their Christmas shopping early — they have received their share of the state income tax collected in August.

The total amount distributed to local governments was $7,111,076.89. Of this amount, according to figures released by Governor Richard Ogilvie, $1,152,067 was divided among the 102 counties and $5,959,009.31 went to the 1,258 cities and villages in the state. Payment is made on a per capita basis, the money coming from one-twelfth share of the state income tax reserved by law for distribution to local government.

The first year of the state income tax has seen $73,786-731 parceled out to local governments.

Mokena and Manhattan for instance, have fared about the same. Mokena has a population of 1,376, according to the figures used by the state, and Manhattan has 1,375, so Mokena received $807.72 as its share for August, while Manhattan's was $807.07, which puts the per capita share at 65 cents. The amounts paid each in the current fiscal year have been $1,432.61 to Mokena and $1,431.57 to Manhattan.

New Lenox with a population of 2,367 has received $2,464.39 this year, $1,535.66 for August.

Frankfort's population is 2,142. Its payment for August is $1,389.69 and its total for the fiscal year, $2,230.13. Lockport has received $9,146.48 for the year, of which $5,699.55 was for August. The population there is 8,785. Romeoville with a population of 6,358 received $4,124.96 for August and $6,619.62 for the fiscal year. Bollingbrook drew less. Its population is 5,357. The August payment was $3,475.53 and its total $5,577.43.

Lemont received $2,617.18 for August, and $4,199.98 for the fiscal year, based on a population of 4,034.

Herron to compete for national honors

Jim Herron, a member of the Wide Country 4-H Club, is one of four members of the Illinois 4-H Horticulture Selection Team which is to compete for national honors at the Junior Horticultural Convention at Denver, Colo., Dec. 6-13.

Jim, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Herron, Caton Farm Rd., Palinfeld area, earned the right to represent Illinois by emerging from the state contest recently with the top score, according to George Young, Will County Assistant Extension Adviser.

Kenneth Bettenhausen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C.

Bettenhausen, Frankfort, places fifth in the state contest. He is first alternate for the Illinois team. Ken is a member of the Green Garden Go-Getters 4-H Club.

The other three members of the state team are, Karen Westerhold, Sangamon County; Donna Apel, Logan County, and Rick Hochstetler, Tazewell County. They will be asked to identify 200 vegetables, fruits, nuts, flowers, ornamental plants, vegetable seeds, weeds, grasses, insects and diseases. Also they will evaluate the quality of different vegetables.

Lockport Rotary sets observance

LOCKPORT -- The Rotary Club of Lockport will join the international service organization's 14,372 other clubs in 148 countries in observing Rotary Foundation Week, November 15-21, at their meeting on Thursday November 19 at Lewis College.

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International provides educational and vocational study programs throughout the world for qualified young people. The objective of the voluntarily supported Foundation is to foster world understanding and friendship through people-to-people contact.

Since 1947, more than 4,000 young men and women have gone abroad, at a cost of more than $10 million dollars, for a year of study and a "tour" as a goodwill ambassador. This year, the foundation will award $1,750,000 to more than 600 young people, according to Ben Farnsworth, president of the Rotary Club of Lockport.

Poultry Contest

NEW LENOX — Don Janssen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Janssen of New Lenox, will represent Illinois at the National 4-H Poultry Selection Contest on Nov. 28 in Chicago.

Don, a member of the New Lenox Hayshakers 4-H Club, is one of the four members on the State 4-H Poultry Selection team. The team will evaluate live poultry, dressed poultry, dressed turkeys, broken out eggs, and shelled eggs at the National 4-H contest.

Jay Fournier

Talk on drugs set by BPW

LOCKPORT — Jay Fournier, special staff consultant for the national YMCA, will be a guest speaker before the Lockport Business and Professional Women's Club Nov. 18 at 6:30 p.m. at the Blue Willow restaurant.

Lt. Robert Miller, juvenile officer for the Lockport police, also will be on the program, which is to center around drug abuse.

The information program will be moderated by Mrs. Charlotte Diaz.

Sits on track, killed by train

MOKENA — A missing patient from the Oak Forest Infirmary was killed Nov. 3 when he was struck by a train.

Police identified the man as Ike Whitmon, 66. William Hocker, a Rock Island Railroad engineer said he saw a man sitting on the tracks as his train was east bound near Route 45.

Hocker said he was unable to stop the train in time to avoid hitting the man.

Crusade goal $685,000

JOLIET -- The 1970 United Crusade of Will County goal is $685,000, it has been announced by Robert Lanier, president of the board of directors.

The money received is used for year-round services to youth of the community, for health services and for welfare for the entire Will County area.

Participating agencies are: Boys' Club, Boy Scouts, Catholic Charities, Catholic Youth Organization, Community Safety Council, Family Service Agency, Girl Scouts, Guardian Angel Home, Lutheran Welfare Services, Morning Star Mission, Peter Claver Center, Public Health Council, Salvation Army, Silver Cross Hospital, Social Service Exchange, United Cerebral Palsy, United Health Foundations, United Service Organizations, Will County 4-H, Wilmington Recreation and Civic Center, YMCA and the Community Branch YMCA.

Two new services provided by the Lutheran Welfare Services of Illinois for county residents may become part of the United Crusade fund drive. Budgets are under consideration for the Senior Services Center of Will County and the Joliet Day Care Center, two programs now affiliated with the Lutheran Welfare Services, Morning Star Mission, Peter Claver Center, Public Health Council, Salvation Army, Silver Cross Hospital, Social Service Exchange, United Cerebral Palsy, United Health Foundations, United Service Organizations, Will County 4-H, Wilmington Recreation and Civic Center, YMCA and the Community Branch YMCA.

Two new services provided by the Lutheran Welfare Services of Illinois for county residents may become part of the United Crusade fund drive. Budgets are under consideration for the Senior Services Center of Will County and the Joliet Day Care Center, two programs now affiliated with the Lutheran Welfare Services.

The Senior Services Center has been funded in the past from grants from Title III of the Older American Act administered by the Illinois Department of Public Aid. It is now aligning itself with the Lutheran Welfare Services to continue to serve all older people in the years to come, according to Dale Sippel, chairman of the board of senior services center, and Will Rasmussen, director of Care of the aged of the Lutheran Welfare Services.

The Joliet Day Care Center has been providing care for pre-school children of working mothers since July. It has a capacity to care for 35 children and is presently 80 per cent funded by the Joliet Community Action Program and 20 per cent by the Lutheran Welfare Services.

Homemakers meet

NEW LENOX — Lincoln Lassies Homemakers Unit will meet at 7:45 p.m. Monday, Nov. 16 in the home of Judy Feil, Branchaw Blvd.

The lesson, "Entertaining at Home," is to be given by the hostess and Shirley Wondrasek.

Hawks return to the same nest each year.

9A-Announcements

The world has entered a new stage of history, the age of the maturity of man and the beginning of a world civilization. The source of this new development was a Man who was exiled, tortured, banished and imprisoned for more than 40 years. He lived during the last century. His name —

Bahá'u'lláh

THE GLORY OF GOD

Bahá'u'lláh is the latest in the succession of Divine Messengers sent by God since the beginning of man's existence. He is the Promised One of all religions. His coming ushers in the Age of Fulfillment mentioned in all the prophecies of the past. Bahá'u'lláh brings God's Plan for world peace, world justice and world unity.

tion firm, has opened a new, permanent office in Chicagoland.

To staff this office, we're seeking:

PROJECT ENGINEERS: Minimum 10 years responsible experience, specifically related to central station power plant design. Degree required—registration preferred.

SENIOR STAFF ENGINEERS: (electrical, instrumentation, mechanical, structural) Engineering degree and minimum 8 years design experience on central station power plant projects. Responsible for engineering design and related administrative work on major projects.

SENIOR ENGINEERS; DESIGN ENGINEERS: (electrical, instrumentation, mechanical) Engineering degree and minimum 3 years design experience on central station power plant projects.

CHECKERS; DESIGNERS; DESIGN DRAFTSMEN: Minimum
4 years electrical, instrumentation, piping or structural experience in preparing or checking design drawings for chemical, petrochemical, pulp and paper, steel mill, power plant or other heavy industrial facilities.

The location is attractive suburban Oak Brook, with unusual freeway accessibility, free parking, superb shopping, and many other living and working advantages.

The job offers excellent pay, generous benefits, challenging duties, and opportunities for career growth and advancement.

If you equate these factors to your professional development, call 986-1100 (9 a.m.-8 p.m. weekdays; 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday), for information and an interview appointment.
